New Year's Eve Carnival

Objectives

- Understanding Chinese Traditional Culture: By participating in activities like Touhu and Archery, children will learn the historical origins and cultural significance of traditional games, sparking their interest in Chinese heritage.
- Developing Hands-On Skills: Creative workshops such as making Candied Hawthorn Sticks and Herbal Sachets help children refine their fine motor skills and unleash their creativity.
- Preserving Festive Traditions: Through writing Spring Festival Couplets, children will understand the meaning of blessings and the cultural value of traditional Spring Festival customs.
- Enhancing Parent-Child Interaction: Parents and children can engage in games and crafts together, strengthening family bonds and fostering closer relationships.

- Improving Social and Collaborative Skills: Through both activities, children will learn to cooperate, take turns, and share with others, cultivating good social manners and teamwork.
- Experiencing Festive Joy: Immersing themselves in the lively atmosphere of the Spring Festival Carnival, children can feel the happiness of the celebration and connect emotionally with traditional festivals.

Brief Descriptions

To celebrate the Chinese New Year, our kindergarten is proudly hosting the "New Year's Eve Carnival", and we warmly invite parents and children to participate together. Through fun-filled parent-child activities, this event aims to provide an immersive experience of the charm of Chinese culture and the joy of traditional festivities. The event features a variety of booths, including traditional games such as Pitch-Pot (Touhu), Archery, and Wooden Shooting, as well as creative workshops like making Candied Hawthorn Sticks and Herbal Sachets, and writing Spring Couplets. Children will learn and experience the rich essence of Chinese culture while having fun.
